A spacious family sized four bedroomed house standing in delightfully secluded grounds extending to 0.4 acre or thereabouts. The property is delightfully situated within this genuinely unspoilt and undeveloped village situated just 3 miles east of Newark.

The accommodation is well designed, adaptable and ideal for a modern family lifestyle. The rooms are spacious and particularly light and airy. The internal floor area is 2290 sq.ft approximately. The property, built in the late 1970s, has a stunning sun lounge extension built approximately 20 years ago. Central heating is oil fired and the property has uPVC double glazed windows throughout.

The property stands on a substantial tree lined frontage with a retaining stone wall entrance and ample car parking space. There is a Type II electric charger fitted within the lean-to car port. The gardens extend to the rear with open fields beyond the boundary and far reaching views. First floor balconies provide an additional facility and the principal rooms are due south facing.

The accommodation provides, on the ground floor, entrance hall, shower room, lounge, dining area, kitchen, pantry, study/playroom, sun lounge, rear entrance porch and boiler room. The first room provides four double sized bedrooms, master en-suite and the family bathroom. Externally there is an integral garage, car port and gardens extending to the front and rear.

Barnby in the Willows is a charming village situated just 3 miles east of Newark. The quaint Willow Tree pub is an amenity to the village. The church stands on the eastern end of the village where there are far reaching views of the surrounding countryside towards the Lincolnshire Cliff. Public footpaths connect from the village into the surrounding countryside. The village is approached by country lanes via Barnby Gate, Newark or from the A17 trunk road with the turning east of Newark golf course and adjacent to Barnby Manor.

The village is conveniently situated for access points to the A1, A17 and A46 trunk roads. Rail services from Newark Northgate provide fast trains to London King's Cross with journey times of just over 75 minutes. Newark Castle station has connections to Lincoln and Nottingham. Newark is a vibrant market town with an extensive range of amenities and a historic background. The Georgian Market Square and 12th Century Castle are particular features of the town. There are lots of niche shops and the North Gate Retail Park easily accessible.

The property, constructed in the late 1970s has cavity walls under an interlocking tiled roof. There is an integral garage. A sun lounge extension was built approximately 20 years ago. The following accommodation is provided:
