LOCATION:

The Sleat peninsula is one of the Island's most popular areas, with its wonderful green and wooded forestry trails, coastal views, abundant wildlife, and local history. The area is an ideal base for outdoor pursuits, with a host of beautiful walks through awe-inspiring countryside and seascapes, offering glimpses of dramatic cliffs and secluded bays. The primary school (offering both English and Gaelic medium classes) is situated in the nearby village of Kilmore with secondary education to be found in Portree, the Island's capital, approximately 32 miles away. A school bus runs daily to the school. Camuscross has magnificent views across the Sound of Sleat to the Knoydart hills beyond. The nearest main village is Broadford, approx. 8 miles away, and here you will find a good range of amenities.

ACCOMMODATION:

Chalet, 2 Camuscross is a 4-bedroom detached bungalow that was built around 2004 and extends to some 84 sq m. The property benefits from timber frame double glazed windows and uPVC double glazed doors. Heating is by way of an oil-fired Trianco central heating boiler to radiators throughout the property. Utility facilities are available in the Outhouse at the rear of the property, which also houses the oil central heating boiler and hot water tank. Wraparound decking on three sides of the house is connected by a walkway to the outhouse, providing easy access. The property makes use of a shared septic tank and shared driveway for which the maintenance is shared. The property is in walk in condition, and set in an enviable waterfront location.
