Property Description

Sitting proudly at the end of the terrace on one of Lower Bedminster's most loved streets, this home has that rare quality buyers always hope to find. It feels welcoming the moment you arrive, full of character, full of space and full of potential for someone ready to make it their own.

Step inside and the hallway leads you through to a ground floor that unfolds with surprising generosity. The reception room offers a calm, versatile space that works just as well for lively evenings as it does for slow Sunday mornings. The dining room sits alongside it, ready for gatherings, work, hobbies or whatever rhythm life brings. The kitchen looks out over the garden, giving the whole floor a sense of connection and possibility.

Upstairs, the first floor offers a bay fronted main bedroom with excellent storage and a lovely sense of light. The second bedroom leads into an adjoining room that can be opened up or kept separate depending on how you want the space to feel. The bathroom sits off the landing, waiting for someone with vision to elevate it into something special.

Climb again and the house reveals its best surprise. The loft conversion is bright, airy and genuinely impressive, with a spacious landing that feels almost like an additional living area. A shower room and a further bedroom complete this upper level, creating a retreat that feels tucked away from the rest of the home.
