A well-proportioned two-bedroom apartment set on the fifth floor of Jessel House, a characterful 1920s red-brick mansion block on Page Street in the heart of Westminster.

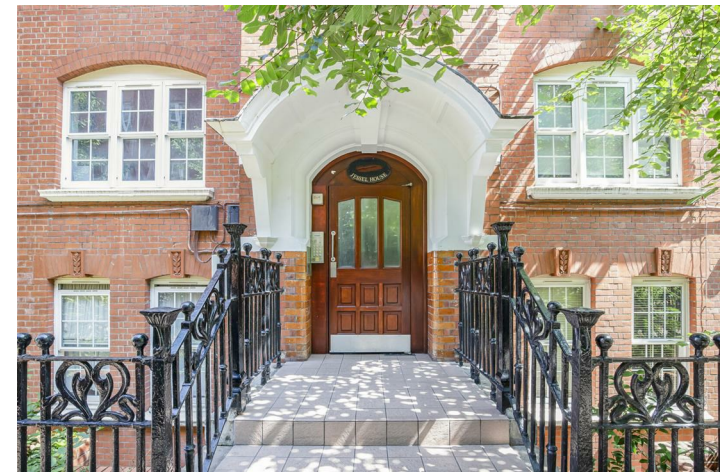

Extending to just under 600 sq ft, the property offers a bright reception room with dual-aspect windows, a separate galley kitchen, and two well-sized bedrooms, including a generous principal with excellent built-in storage. The bathroom is neatly presented, with scope for modernisation.

Positioned on the fifth floor (no lift), the apartment enjoys a peaceful setting and open outlook, with access to communal outdoor spaces and a secure entry system.

Ideally located moments from St James's Park, the River Thames and excellent transport links at Westminster, St James's Park and Victoria.
