Tucked away on Baxter Road in the heart of the sought-after market town of Hingham, near Norwich, this beautifully preserved Grade II listed end-terrace cottage dates back to the 1750s and effortlessly combines period charm with modern comfort.

Full of character, the property welcomes you into a reception entrance hall leading through to the garden. The cosy sitting room, complete with a woodburner, offers a warm and inviting retreat, while the well-appointed kitchen/diner provides ample space for dining and opens onto a private courtyard garden — perfect for quiet relaxation or entertaining.

Upstairs, a generous double bedroom with built-in storage is complemented by a separate dressing room and a stylish modern shower room. Electric heating and a blend of double and secondary glazing ensure comfort throughout the year.

Hingham, often referred to as 'Little London' for its striking architecture, offers a charming blend of history and community, with local amenities, schooling and excellent access to surrounding market towns and Norwich just 14 miles away.

An ideal first home, character retreat or boutique holiday let opportunity, this delightful cottage presents a rare chance to own a piece of Norfolk's heritage.
