Interior

This pristine cottage farmhouse is spacious, bright and airy throughout with vaulted or high ceilings in all rooms. Beautifully presented in neutral tones that gives a homely welcoming feel, with versatile rooms and uses within the main building and the garden rooms.

Ground Floor:

Entering through a pretty porch way into a bright hallway with a staircase that curves up to the first floor.

Leading from this very well presented entrance space is a separate convenient wc as well as a utility room which has space and plumbing for a washing macine and tumble dryer, a sink, additional storage space and cupboards that house the gas boiler.

The fabulous kitchen is wonderfully appointed with not only an extremely well maintained navy blue oil fired Aga, but also an electric oven, four burner gas hob, extractor fan, integrated fridge freezer, dishwasher and wine cooler. There are a multitude of wooden wall and base units flowing around the room, the warm coloured units match the beamed ceiling and keeps the traditional feel through this spacious room that has plenty of space for a dining table, making this the sociable hub of the home.

The kitchen leads off to a versatile dining room that has been previously used as a fourth bedroom with its own en-suite shower room, from here you reach the extensive conservatory with its pitched ceiling that is flooded with light through the double patio doors and the array of windows across the rear of this relaxing area.

The final room on this floor is the long sitting room that can be accessed from the hallway and through the double doors from the conservatory. Within the chimney breast, sitting on a dark slate hearth, is multi-fuel burner which is a focal point in this lovely room.

First Floor:

On this level are three bedrooms, a deep linen cupboard and a large family bathroom.

The principal bedroom has double patio doors that open to a 'Juliette' style balcony which allows daylight to flood in and gives beautiful views out over the fields. The further two double bedrooms are equally light and with the same great views. The internal doors are of a traditional style with some having thumb latch fastenings, keeping the authentic farmhouse feeling. A large fully tiled family bathroom has a free standing roll top bath with 'telephone' style hand held shower attachment, double basin vanity unit, wc and free standing shower cubicle.
