Simpson & Weekley

Set back on a large corner plot in a tranquil cul-de-sac location sits this excellent three bedroom home, benefitting from a sizeable private driveway and larger than average rear garden.

The home has been very-well looked after and improved by the current owner, with accommodation comprising of an entrance hall, dining room, re-fitted kitchen and conservatory on the ground floor. On the first floor are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles, and a re-fitted bathroom. To the front, you will find a private driveway providing off-road parking for three cars, in addition to a detached brick-built garage to the side of the property. The rear garden is very well-tended and private, being on the edge of miles of beautiful countryside.

The property itself is ideally located, being within walking distance to a wide selection of amenities in the town, and for nature-lovers there is a variety of countryside walks right on your doorstep. For commuters, both the A6 and A45 are easily accessible.
