Description

The Property

This spacious and well-proportioned home offers generous single-level accommodation and is set on a substantial plot.

The property comprises a welcoming entrance hall, four bedrooms, two reception rooms, a dining room, and a fitted kitchen complemented by a separate utility room. There are two bathrooms in addition to a separate WC, providing practical facilities for larger households.

Externally, the property benefits from a large private garden offering ample outdoor space, along with a garage.

Situation

Shelley Lane is situated in the sought-after village of Harefield, offering a pleasant semi-rural setting while still benefiting from convenient access to local amenities and transport connections. The property is within easy reach of Denham Railway Station, which provides regular Chiltern Railways services into London Marylebone, making journeys into the capital straightforward. The area is also well positioned for major road networks including the M40 motorway, M25 motorway and A40 road, offering excellent connectivity to London and the wider motorway network. Harefield village provides a selection of local shops, cafés and everyday amenities, while more extensive shopping, restaurants and leisure facilities can be found in nearby Uxbridge town centre including The Chimes Shopping Centre and The Pavilions Shopping Centre. The area is also served by a number of local schools including Harefield Infant School, Harefield Junior School and Harefield Academy.
