Plot at Carrol Rise

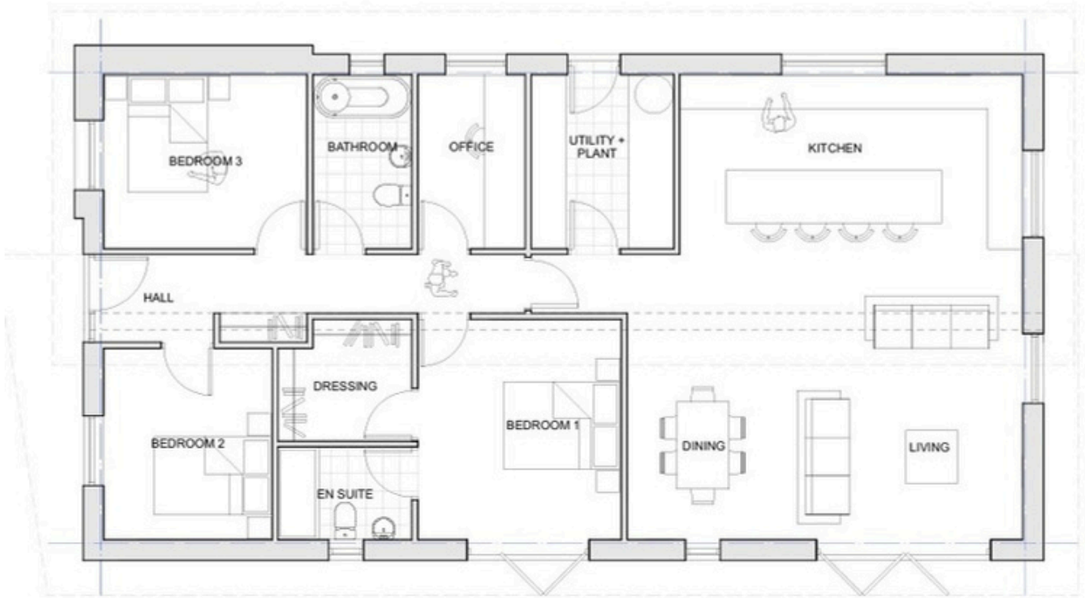

Chilsworthy, Holsworthy, Devon, EX22 7BH

Accommodation

LOCATION
The development plot is situated within the small rural village of Chilsworthy, approximately 2 miles north-west of the thriving market town of Holsworthy. The village has a strong community feel and benefits from a village hall, Post Office, public house, place of worship and recreational facilities.

The nearby market town of Holsworthy provides an excellent range of everyday amenities, including supermarkets, independent and national retailers, primary and secondary schooling, leisure facilities, an 18-hole golf course and a traditional weekly Pannier Market.

The popular North Cornish coastal town of Bude lies approximately 10 miles away and is renowned for its sandy beaches, surfing and dramatic coastal scenery.

Description

A rare opportunity to purchase a development site of one open market dwelling located on an exclusive estate, close to the Devon / Cornwall border with easy access to the market town of Holsworthy and the coastal town of Bude.

Given the opportunity at hand and location and size of the site, it is sure to appeal to a myriad of buyers including developers and those seeking self-builds.

The property comprises of a spacious open plan kitchen living, dining spaces, with a dedicated office, utility room and three double bedrooms with the master enjoying a walk in dressing room and en suite.

Architecturally, the single storey property will benefit from vaulted ceilings to the rear, bringing natural light through the property and creating an intriguing design.

The development will be accessed via the completed development known as Carroll Rise and has already been connected to water, electric and drainage for both surface water and sewage.

The site offers the perfect opportunity for a builder or developer to start construction with immediate effect.
