Swan y Gwynt Upper Morannedd, Criccieth, LL52 0PP

They say "location, location, location" is what sells a property and we certainly think that will be the case for this amazing property! There are not many houses you can enjoy panoramic sea, mountain and countryside views from and also be staring straight at Snowdon from your kitchen window!

"Swan Y Gwynt" is a much loved family home, constructed by the vendors father in the 1960's, being one of the first houses to occupy this much sought after elevated position on Morannedd in the popular coastal town of Criccieth. The property makes the most of the views with "upside down" living, with three double bedrooms, family bathroom and large linen store which could become a further small bedroom to the ground floor and open plan lounge/diner, kitchen, utility and WC to the first floor. The living area opens up to a stunning balcony to enjoy the views.

There is a large lawned garden to the front and engineered tiered gardens to the rear - all enjoying the most breath-taking views. You really need to see this property to appreciate it fully!
