Offers In Excess Of £740,000 Freehold

Impressive Detached Village Home with Beautiful Gardens & Countryside Views

Positioned within a generous elevated plot on the edge of the sought-after village of Sedlescombe, this substantial four bedroom detached home offers versatile accommodation ideal for modern family living and multi-generational needs. A welcoming entrance hall leads to the principal ground floor rooms, including a well-appointed dual aspect kitchen/breakfast room opening onto the garden, with separate utility room. Two spacious reception rooms provide excellent living space, the main featuring a triple aspect, exposed timbers and a log burner, with doors onto a raised terrace overlooking the gardens -ideal for entertaining. A ground floor double bedroom with en-suite adds valuable flexibility for guests, independent living or home working. Upstairs, a galleried landing serves three further bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom enjoys a triple aspect, far-reaching countryside views and a generous en-suite/dressing room. Outside, there is ample off-road parking, a double garage and beautifully established, private gardens wrapping around the property. Thoughtfully landscaped, the gardens include mature trees and shrubs, well-stocked borders, a rose garden, rhododendron screening, patio seating areas, greenhouse, vegetable patch and fruit trees, creating a peaceful and private setting. Conveniently located within easy reach of Sedlescombe village amenities including a green, pub, shop, post office, primary school and doctors surgery. The area is well regarded for schooling at both primary and secondary levels, with a range of state and independent options nearby. Surrounded by rolling countryside, there are numerous scenic walks and bridleways to enjoy, while Battle offers a wider range of facilities and mainline rail links to London.
