

Hawthorns Road

Drybrook, GL17 9BX

£450,000

An exceptional four bedroom detached period home, built in 1850, blending an abundance of character features with tasteful modern improvements throughout.

This charming stone built home offers spacious & versatile accommodation complemented by a garage, basement storage & beautifully landscaped gardens. The heart of the home is the impressive open plan lounge/dining room, a wonderfully sociable space showcasing exposed beams, an original fireplace & exposed stone walling. From here it opens up to the adjoining kitchen & door to the utility room/shower room, providing practical everyday convenience.

Further enhancing the ground floor are two additional reception rooms, including a cosy snug with a feature woodburning stove set within an attractive stone fireplace, creating the perfect retreat during the colder months. The second reception room offers excellent flexibility and could be utilised as a home office, bedroom or hobby space.

To the first floor are four well proportioned bedrooms, each enjoying their own character and charm. The master bedroom benefits from extensive built-in wardrobes, while the remaining bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation for family members or guests. A spacious family bathroom serves this floor & features a modern suite. The second floor offers a useful attic room together with additional storage areas, creating an ideal space.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The attractive stone façade is complemented by a private driveway leading to the integral garage, whilst the basement provides excellent additional storage and workshop potential. To the rear lies a beautifully landscaped garden enclosed by historic stone walls, featuring manicured lawns, mature shrubs, colourful planting and several seating areas designed to make the most of the peaceful surroundings.
