Floor Plans & Dimensions: We have provided floor plans to show the approximate dimensions of the properties on this site. The dimensions may vary as each property is built individually and precise internal finishes may vary during the course of construction. External finishes will vary from plot to plot. Some plots may be handed versions of the illustrations (mirror image) and may be detached, semi-detached or terraced.

Elevations and Internal Finishes: Artist impressions/CGL's have been used to represent the houses to be built. The colours and finish of the various external elevations may vary from house to house. The area surrounding each property may also differ from that shown. Please be sure to check with our sales representative for details of the finishes relating to your chosen property at the time of reservation.

Location

Liddymore Park is ideally located to access the town, with lovely beaches, and surrounding countryside on your doorstep.

Watchet is a charming harbour town on the West Somerset Coast and has a great deal to offer, from the bustling Marina and historic port, the wild beauty of its coastline and stunning countryside with views inland towards the Quantock Hills. Whether it is a brisk walk, rock pooling and fossil hunting, or a mooch around the quirky shops in Watchet there is plenty to offer. The East Quay gallery, restaurant and studios are new to the town and host a full programme of exhibitions, events, workshops, courses and activities for children and adults all year round, there is always plenty to do.

Watchet is well connected via the A39 from Bridgwater and A358 from Taunton and Minehead. It also has a variety of local amenities and shops including independent and High Street names appropriate for modern living. Schools are well catered for, with a middle school nearby and the Knights Templar community church school and nursery within easy walking distance of Liddymore Park.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011.

8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the tenure of the property are based on information supplied by the seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor.
