LOCATION

Nestled between the picturesque villages of Christleton and Boughton Heath, it is effortless to explore the inviting pubs, shops and countryside walks on your doorstep, but for those keen to cast their net of experience a little wider. You will find the local area bursting with stunning scenery and countless things to see and do. A quick hop on the park and ride, or a 30 minute cycle if you are feeling energetic, will take you directly to Chester's pretty walled centre bursting with history. Discover the city's rich heritage as you stroll through the cobbled streets, some home to buildings that are over 700 years old. Explore the museums, Roman amphitheater and ornate Eastgate clock before stopping in for a delicious cake from Pastry Pedaleur. For the shopaholics, the Rows are half timbered galleries along Watergate Street, Eastgate Street and Bridge Street, or plan a visit to the story house instead; a multi-purpose venue featuring a library, theatre, cinema and variety of cultural events.

LIVE LONG THRIVE

Nestled between picturesque Christleton and Boughton Heath, just a stone's throw away from the historic centre of Chester, this ground breaking Thrive Living development by Retirement Villages is part of a brand new collection of sustainable communities that put people's choice and wellbeing first. Picture beautifully designed apartments weaved between landscaped green spaces and meandering pathways with a wealth of facilities to enjoy as and when you choose. The Wyldewoods is all about experiencing life's everyday pleasures, opportunities and adventures. It is the excitement of making new friends, remaining connected to the local community and most importantly it is the empowerment that comes from continuing to live life in exactly the way you choose.

WELLBEING AND SUPPORT

The variety of activities and events on offer at the Wyldewoods from theatre trips to book clubs, gardening, games nights and themed suppers, to name a few, are all supported by our community coordinator who plays a huge part in this. We actively encourage you to tell us what you would like to do. Our Live Well packages are tailored to your needs offering additional services like housekeeping and home cooked meals, whilst allowing you to continue to live independently. Should a high level of care be required at any point, we work in partnership with a local care provider who we know and trust and can provide a bespoke and convenient and stress free solution for residents. To find out more about any of the services, simply speak to one of the friendly sales consultants.

WHAT COULD A TYPICAL DAY LOOK LIKE?

Soak up the moments in a stylish clubhouse with a morning coffee and newspaper or get creative whilst catching up with friends at craft club before jumping on the park and ride to run errands into Chester. Spend the afternoon tending to your vegetables at the local allotment, unwind in the on site wellness area, with its treatment rooms and fitness centre - remembering to sneak off home before getting invited to another dinner party. The Wyldewoods is set to be a hive of activity, yet with the blissful comfort of your own space.
