Enjoying far-reaching rural views across the surrounding countryside, this is a holding that perfectly blends traditional charm with modern investment and future potential.

At the heart of the farm lies a striking three-storey farmhouse, sympathetically and comprehensively renovated back to the original stonework. The result is a characterful yet refined home offering five generous double bedrooms, ideal for family living or those seeking a lifestyle property with presence and scale. The accommodation provides a wonderful balance of traditional features and modern finishes, creating a warm and inviting environment throughout.

The wider holding is equally impressive, featuring an extensive range of traditional Manx stone barns alongside portal frame agricultural buildings, offering excellent versatility for a variety of uses. Whether for continued agricultural use, equestrian interests, or potential diversification (subject to any necessary consents), the infrastructure here provides a strong foundation for future growth.

In addition to the main farmhouse, the property benefits from a beautifully renovated three-bedroom cottage, providing immediate, high-quality ancillary accommodation. Perfect for extended family, guest use, or an additional income stream, this secondary dwelling significantly enhances the overall appeal and flexibility of the holding.
