Inside

A generous reception hall with staircase leads into a sitting room with an archway through into an attractively appointed 18'8" (5.69m) long dining kitchen that provides base and wall storage cupboards and space for a small dining table, complemented by a built-in oven and hob with contemporary filter canopy above and freestanding appliance space.

The first floor landing features exposed beams, 10'10" (3.30m) high vaulted ceilings and doors leading off into a principal double bedroom with built-in wardrobe, one single bedroom and a stylish shower room with a vanity unit and a walk-in shower.

Other internal features of note include a gas fired central heating system and sealed unit double glazing.

Outside

Externally there is a small forecourted area of front garden with a designated single parking space and use of a shared garden store directly opposite the property, which also offers an alternative use as additional garden space.

It should be noted that the property can be accessed off both Back Lane and the Market Place via a pedestrian snicket adjacent to The York public house.
