This classic and popular Victorian terraced house is conveniently situated on a well regarded residential road approximately 1.5 miles to the west of Reading town centre (25 min level walk), and within minutes of a host of amenities to include Kensington Recreation Ground, Battle Library, a wealth of shops, restaurants, cafes and supermarkets, plus gyms, pubs and a frequent 24 hour bus service. Reading West train station linking Reading main line, Paddington, Newbury, Theale, Basingstoke is also approximately 10 minutes walk.

Sitting behind a low brick wall, this attractive property is approached via path leading to an open covered porch over the front door. Opening to the entrance hall, stairs directly ahead rise to the first floor and openings lead to 2 versatile reception rooms comprising of living room with front aspect bay window and feature exposed brick fireplace, and a separate dining room. From the dining room, the kitchen is well appointed and has a bi-folding door to the rear aspect bathroom which includes shower over bath, and also has a door leading to a useful lean to utility area with courtesy door to the rear garden. On the first floor, the central landing (with built in airing cupboard) gives access to 3 well proportioned and individually approached bedrooms serviced by a separate side aspect W/C. General notable points also include UPVC double glazing throughout, central heating to radiators via gas fired boiler (installed March 2020) and a fully boarded loft space.

Outside, the well tended rear garden is another sought after feature of the property. Enjoying a rare southerly aspect and enclosed by original brick walls with fencing above, the garden measures approximately 25' in length (7.5m) with a patio area adjoining an area of lawn surrounded by planted flower and shrub beds.
