This well-proportioned semi-detached house provides generous and flexible living space throughout. The property opens with an entrance hall leading to a bay-fronted lounge and a separate dining room, which flows into the kitchen and a sizeable conservatory with French doors opening onto the rear garden. A convenient ground floor four-piece shower room, complete with a shower cubicle, sink, WC, and bidet, adds to the practicality of the home. Throughout the ground floor, you will find solid oak wood flooring. To the first floor, the landing offers storage and leads to three double bedrooms, with built-in storage to bedroom two, alongside a four-piece family bathroom featuring a bath, separate shower cubicle, sink, and WC. Externally, the property boasts a generous laid-to-lawn rear garden that wraps around the home, with a patio seating area, side access, and off-street parking to the front. There is also access to an integral garage. Further benefits include double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated in the quiet Collins Way in Eastwood, Leigh-on-Sea, the property falls within the catchment area for Heycroft Primary School and The Eastwood Academy. The location offers easy access to local amenities, parks, and bus links, making it ideal for families and commuters alike.
