A Magnificent Victorian Residence - Broomhill Conservation Area - Six to Eight Bedrooms - Approx. 3,500 sq.ft - No Chain

Occupying an enviable position in the heart of the Broomhill Conservation Area, this striking double fronted semi-detached 1850's home offers a rare combination of grandeur, space and location. Extending to 3,519 sq.ft over four floors, the property retains a wealth of period charm, with tall ceilings, elegant fireplaces and original detailing throughout.

Set behind an impressive gated entrance with extensive parking, driveway and detached garage, the house is perfectly framed by its southerly-facing rear garden - ideal for both entertaining and family life.

Inside, the accommodation is arranged to provide generous and versatile living. The ground floor features a welcoming reception hall, a refined drawing room with its original marble fireplace, and a magnificent dining room centred around a tall American walnut fireplace. A study or family room offers flexible space, while the kitchen, rear lobby and cloakroom complete the floor.

The first floor provides three to four spacious bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the second floor offers a further three to four bedrooms together with a bathroom suite and separate shower. The lower ground floor provides useful cellars with a ceiling height of 8.6 ft, providing excellent storage and future potential.

This handsome home enjoys an unrivalled location. Within walking distance of the city centre, the universities, major hospitals and a range of highly regarded independent schools, it also lies on the doorstep of open countryside and the Peak District National Park. Broomhill itself is a leafy and peaceful suburb, valued for its character, amenities and community feel.

With no onward chain and available for early completion, this truly special residence combines Victorian grandeur with flexible family living in one of Sheffield's most desirable settings.
