North Fambridge

Nestled on the banks of the River Crouch is the village of North Fambridge which offers rail links to London's Liverpool Street Station. Located in the Maldon District, North Fambridge is close to South Woodham Ferrers and Burnham-on-Crouch.

The village features the Holy Trinity Church, the popular Ferry Boat Inn public house serving as a meeting point for residents and visitors alike offering a taste of local hospitality and the Blue House Farm nature reserve a haven for birdwatchers and nature enthusiasts, offering diverse habitats from saltmarshes to mudflats.

The River Crouch itself is a focal point for various activities. Sailing and boating are popular pastimes, with local facilities catering to enthusiasts. The tranquil waters are perfect for kayaking or paddleboarding, allowing for a unique perspective of the riverside landscape. For those who prefer to stay on land, the riverbanks offer excellent spots for fishing or simply enjoying the serene atmosphere.
