Lockesley

The Forstal, Preston, Canterbury

A quintessential thatched country cottage nestled amongst its own established gardens, in the picturesque village of Preston.

Situation

The charming village of Preston is home to the historic Church of St. Mildred, the welcoming Half Moon and Seven Stars public house, a village shop, reputable butchers and a primary school. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, the village is ideal for walking, cycling and riding. A short distance away lies the picturesque Cinque Port town of Sandwich, which provides an excellent range of amenities including a supermarket, independent shops, post office, chemist, doctor and dentist surgeries, along with a variety of restaurants and public houses. The town also benefits from a selection of well-regarded schools and leisure facilities. Sandwich offers a mainline railway station with high-speed services to London St Pancras International, as well as frequent services to London Charing Cross. In addition, the nearby Thanet Parkway railway station provides further high-speed connections to London St Pancras. The renowned Prince's Golf Club and Royal St George's Golf Club are at Sandwich Bay.

bedrooms, the principle of which features a useful ensuite cloakroom. This well-maintained character property is gas centrally heated, and a combination of double and secondary glazing is installed.

Outside

Lockesley sits centrally within its own lovingly tended cottage gardens, where mature trees provide privacy and seclusion and established hedging together with stocked flower borders enclose the garden and provide year-round interest. A five-bar gate to one side provides vehicular access to a detached double garage with electric roller door. Nestled within the garden is a timber summer house, paved seating area and established wildlife pond.
