Jodie says:

“This is one of those properties that really surprised me with just how much space it offers. For anyone looking to take their first step onto the property ladder or secure a solid investment opportunity, I think this apartment has so much to offer.

Set over the first and second floors, what immediately stood out to me was the generous layout. Apartments of this style don't often provide such well-proportioned accommodation, and having two genuine double bedrooms alongside a separate study makes this home incredibly versatile. Whether you're working from home, need a hobby room, or simply want some extra storage space, the study is a real bonus.

As you enter, the hallway provides access to both double bedrooms and the bathroom, creating a practical and welcoming layout. Upstairs, I particularly like the open-plan living and dining area. The large window and Juliette balcony doors flood the space with natural light, making it feel bright, airy and sociable. It's easy to imagine relaxing here after a long day or entertaining friends and family.

The kitchen sits conveniently off the living space, helping to create a modern lifestyle feel, while outside there's plenty of communal seating space to enjoy during the warmer months. Having an allocated parking space is another feature I think buyers will really appreciate.

Situated in the popular village of Hilton, this is a home that offers far more than you might expect from the outside”.
