PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Smart Millerson Estate Agents are delighted to present to the market this well-proportioned one bedroom, ground floor retirement apartment, exclusively available to the over 60's. Ideally situated within a highly regarded retirement development and conveniently located within a short and level walk of Truro's historic and vibrant city centre, the property provides easy access to a wide range of local amenities including shops, cafés, restaurants, medical facilities and excellent transport links. Offered to the market with the significant advantage of no onward chain, this property represents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a comfortable, secure and low-maintenance home within a welcoming community environment. The apartment is held on a 125-year lease which was granted in 2000.

The development itself has been thoughtfully designed to promote both independent living and a strong sense of community among residents. A welcoming communal lounge provides a pleasant social hub where residents can meet, relax, and participate in various organised activities or informal gatherings. For added convenience, there is also a well-maintained communal laundry room and a refuse room, ensuring that everyday practicalities are easily managed. One of the standout features of the complex is the guest suite, which offers comfortable accommodation for visiting friends and family, allowing loved ones to stay overnight without impacting the privacy of the apartment itself. The development is well cared for and provides a safe, friendly, and supportive environment for residents.

Internally, the apartment offers light-filled and well-arranged accommodation. Upon entering, a bright and airy entrance hallway provides access to the principal rooms and offers useful storage space. The generously sized lounge/diner forms the heart of the home and offers an inviting space for both relaxation and entertaining. Large French doors allow an abundance of natural light to flood the room and open directly onto a pleasant patio area, creating a wonderful extension of the living space and an ideal spot to enjoy some fresh air or a morning coffee.

Leading from the lounge is the well-equipped kitchen, which is fitted with a range of wall and base level units incorporating cupboards and drawers, providing ample storage and preparation space. The layout has been thoughtfully designed to maximise functionality while remaining practical and easy to maintain.

The apartment is further complemented by a spacious double bedroom, offering plenty of room for freestanding furniture, and a beautifully presented shower room which has been designed with accessibility and comfort in mind. The overall accommodation offers a practical and comfortable layout, ideally suited to modern retirement living.

Externally, the development benefits from a communal residents' car park which operates on a first-come, first-served basis, providing convenient parking for both residents and visitors. The surrounding communal areas are attractively maintained and contribute to the pleasant overall setting of the development.

The property is connected to all mains services. There is an annual ground rent of £724 and a service charge of £3,326, which contributes to the upkeep and maintenance of the communal areas and facilities. Council tax band to be confirmed.

LOCATION

Truro is Cornwall's only city and serves as the county's vibrant administrative, cultural, and retail centre. Rich in history and character, the city is perhaps best known for the striking Truro Cathedral, whose impressive Gothic Revival architecture forms the heart of the city and a focal point for the surrounding streets. Truro offers an excellent range of amenities including a variety of independent boutiques, well-known high street retailers, cafés, restaurants, and traditional pubs, many of which are centred around Lemon Street, Boscawen Street, and the popular Lemon Quay. The city is also home to the well-regarded Hall for Cornwall, a renowned theatre and cultural venue hosting a wide range of performances, events, and entertainment throughout the year.
