Offered for sale is a two-bedroom first floor terraced flat in Sandringham Road, Sunderland. Offered in good condition and well suited to first-time buyers and families.

The property comprises a tastefully decorated reception room featuring a fireplace, providing a comfortable main living space. The modern, efficient kitchen offers practical workspace and storage, supporting everyday cooking and dining needs.

There are two bedrooms. The master bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and large windows that allow for good natural light. The second bedroom is a single room, also benefiting from built-in wardrobes, making effective use of the available space. The spacious bathroom is partially tiled and includes a useful utility space within a cupboard, providing additional storage and laundry options. The property also benefits from a brand new Baxi boiler and comes with a 5 year warranty. Externally, the flat also has a useful rear yard.

There are nearby parks and green spaces offering opportunities for walking and recreation, as well as access to coastal areas within driving distance for further leisure options. Sunderland city centre and surrounding neighbourhoods provide a variety of shops, cafés and everyday services, accessible by public transport or car.

This two-bedroom terraced flat presents a functional layout and a convenient setting for purchasers seeking a home in Sunderland.
