The Main Text

Beautifully presented throughout, this spacious three/four-bedroom semi-detached home combines flexible family accommodation with exceptional off-road parking, a detached garage, and a generous rear garden.

The ground floor offers a contemporary kitchen and living space with sleek grey cabinetry and a breakfast bar, alongside a separate dining room. A bright conservatory opens directly onto the garden, creating another inviting place to relax or entertain. A useful utility room and ground-floor WC add to the layout's practicality.

Upstairs are three bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom. A further room on the second floor offers flexibility as a fourth bedroom, home office or hobby room. Outside, the lawned rear garden provides plenty of room to enjoy, while the extensive parking area and detached garage are standout features.

Set on Port Road East, the property is well placed for Barry's amenities, local schools and routes towards Cardiff and the M4. Its immaculate presentation and adaptable layout make it a home that is ready to enjoy.

Local area

Port Road East offers a convenient position within Barry, with everyday shops, services and leisure facilities within easy reach. Barry town centre and Barry Island provide further choices for shopping, dining and days out, while the property's garden and generous parking offer welcome space at home.

Transport links

ion is convenient for travel towards Cardiff and the M4, with onward routes towards Bristol. Barry's rail stations offer an alternative for journeys into Cardiff and across the Vale of Glamorgan. Buyers should check the route and service that best suits their commute.

Schools

The property is well positioned for access to primary and secondary schools in the Barry area. Families are advised to confirm current catchment areas, admissions arrangements and availability directly with the relevant school or local authority.
