Guide Price £375,000 - £400,000

Spacious, stylish and superbly connected! This impressive four-bedroom mid-terrace home on Boyce Road offers an abundance of versatile living space, a modern interior and a fantastic location within easy reach of everything Stanford-le-Hope has to offer.

Well presented throughout, the property provides a layout perfectly suited to modern family life. A particular highlight is the converted garage, which has created a fantastic ground-floor fourth bedroom – an incredibly useful and flexible space that could equally make an ideal home office, playroom or guest room.

The excellent accommodation continues with a large and inviting lounge, providing plenty of room to relax and unwind. To the rear is the real heart of the home: a spacious, modern open-plan kitchen/diner, offering an excellent setting for family meals, entertaining friends and everyday living, with access out towards the rear garden.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three good-sized bedrooms, providing comfortable accommodation for the whole family, alongside a modern family bathroom.

Outside, the property continues to impress with the convenience of off-street parking to the front, while the rear boasts a private enclosed garden, ideal for entertaining, relaxing and enjoying the warmer months.

Location is another major selling point. Stanford-le-Hope railway station is approximately 0.5 miles away, offering direct rail services into London Fenchurch Street, making this a fantastic option for commuters. The town centre is even closer, placing a range of shops, amenities and everyday essentials within easy reach. For those travelling by road, the A13 and M25 are also conveniently accessible.

Combining generous accommodation, excellent versatility and superb transport connections, this is a home that deserves to be seen!
