

Thurston Road, Great Barton

Sheridans

Unique detached 2300 sqft family home situated within the sought after village of Great Barton.

This impressive detached family home, provides a surprising level of particularly spacious accommodation, displaying many quality and unique features throughout, including oak flooring, splendid oak and glass bespoke staircase, traditional style internal doors and oak architraves, quality kitchen, luxurious bathrooms and also complemented by underfloor heating to the ground floor. The property offers flexible accommodation on two levels complemented by generous south west facing gardens and a large driveway with extensive garaging, whilst being situated only a few miles from the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds.

Benefiting from under floor heating on the ground floor, double glazing and offered with no onward chain, the well presented accommodation, currently in brief comprises an entrance hall with a pair of doors to the reception hall, with fine oak flooring and oak and glass staircase off to first floor and door to the rather luxurious cloakroom with curved marble vanity unit. The spacious triple aspect sitting room, is an ideal reception room for entertaining and relaxing with two sets of French doors to gardens. The well equipped kitchen breakfast room, is fitted with an extensive range of units providing plenty of drawer and cupboard space beneath granite preparation surfaces, complemented central island and space for range oven. The rear hall has a door to outside and leads to the separate utility room with walk in pantry. The study has a window to rear and the versatile ground floor bedroom (currently used as a formal dining room), has French doors to gardens and door to an en-suite shower, completing the ground floor accommodation.

Accommodation

The bespoke oak and glass staircase, leads to the first floor landing with a large walk in cupboard and providing access to the three bedrooms and bathroom. The principal bedroom suite has a dressing area, walk in wardrobe cupboards and large en-suite shower room. The two remaining bedrooms share a "jack and jill" shower room and the spacious family bathroom, completes the first floor accommodation.

AGENT NOTE: The property is currently being used as a three bedroom home but can be converted to a four bedroom home.

Outside

The house is approached along a driveway providing extensive parking for several vehicles and access to the four excellent garages (ideal for classic car enthusiast) with power supply. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn and stocked with various flower beds, shrubs and mature trees, including a magnificent Oak and Beech Trees. Within the garden is a small fruit orchard and a large summer house/studio with power, creating an ideal space for relaxing enjoying views of the gardens.

Location

The property is set back from Thurston Road on the edge of the village. Great Barton is a sought after village providing a good range of local facilities including a well regarded primary school, village shop, parish church and village inn. Great Barton is situated approximately three miles to the north east of the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds and its excellent range of schooling, shopping, cultural and recreational facilities. The village also provides excellent access to the main road networks including the A14 dual carriageway, linking the east coast ports, Newmarket, Cambridge and London via the M11 Motorway.

Directions

When entering Great Barton along the A143 towards Diss, proceed through the village and turn right after the Bunbury Arms, signposted Thurston. Follow the road and the driveway leading to the property, will be found further on the left just after the turning to Pakenham.

Services/agents note

All mains services are connected. Gas fired central heating. Underfloor throughout ground floor and radiators on first floor. Solar panels.

Agents note: The large Beech and Oak trees within the gardens have Tree Preservation Orders in place. Fixed carpets, cooker & fridge freezer are included in the sale.
