Hillcroft

Mavis Enderby, Spilsby

Set on an impressive plot of approximately 0.32 acre (subject to survey), this attractive and individual detached bungalow enjoys a wonderful village position within a sought-after semi-rural location on the fringe of the Lincolnshire Wolds.

The property offers well-presented and notably spacious accommodation, comprising an inviting entrance hall, cloakroom, dining kitchen, garden room and a comfortable lounge featuring a wood burner. There are also three bedrooms served by a bathroom with a separate shower.

The heated all-season garden room provides a versatile additional living space with access to a private rear seating area and a pathway along the rear of the garage through to the west facing side garden.

Occupying a particularly generous plot, the bungalow enjoys predominantly south-facing front and side gardens, laid mainly to lawn with well-stocked borders of established shrubs and spring bulbs, providing a high degree of privacy and an excellent outdoor space for relaxing or entertaining.

A driveway provides secure off-road parking for several vehicles, with space for a motorhome if required and leads to a substantial double garage/workshop. Fitted with a recently replaced remote-controlled electric up-and-over door (with both remote and internal controls) and benefiting from direct internal access to the bungalow, the garage also offers excellent potential for conversion into a home office, gym or self-contained annexe, subject to any necessary planning permissions.

Additional benefits include oil-fired central heating and double glazing throughout.
