Property Description

This impressive and well-maintained four double bedroom detached property offers a wealth of space and versatility, making it an ideal family home. The ground floor features a generous front lounge that flows seamlessly into a separate dining room, along with a modern kitchen fitted just three years ago and equipped with all essential appliances. A convenient downstairs WC adds further practicality.

To the rear, the property boasts two conservatories, providing flexible additional living space and direct access to the large, secluded rear garden.

Upstairs, the stylish family bathroom serves four well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the master benefitting from its own en-suite shower cubicle.

Further advantages include a large garage with workshop and pantry, as well as a driveway offering ample parking for multiple vehicles.

Situated on the sought-after Nelson Avenue in Minster on Sea, the property enjoys excellent access to the A249 and local amenities.
