This modern detached family home has been constructed and thoughtfully designed with energy efficiency in mind, with high performance triple glazing, low energy lighting in all fixed outlets, PV solar panels, which generate an annual income, an MVHR system and an air source heat pump, which aids heating and hot water. This is a 4.56 kWp system with a 10 kWh battery.

Upon entering through a covered porch, it opens into a light kitchen/living/dining room, which benefits from a dual aspect and is finished with attractive Karndean wood effect flooring throughout. The kitchen itself has been fitted with a comprehensive range of base and eye-level units; integrated Bosch appliances include a microwave, double oven and an electric hob with an extractor over. Double doors from the living room open onto the private garden. There is a personal door leading to the garage, which has an EV charging point and an adjoining utility room with further units and a door to the south-facing garden. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a cloakroom W.C.

Upstairs are 3 double bedrooms, 2 of which have useful shelving installed. The master bedroom is particularly spacious, has built-in sliding mirrored wardrobes and a large en suite shower room, complemented by attractive tiling and a heated towel rail. There is an equally generous family bathroom with a separate bath and shower, finished with attractive tiled flooring and a vanity wash hand basin.

Outside, the rear garden is principally laid to lawn, has a patio area well suited to alfresco dining and a useful storage shed. The garden is bordered with a variety of established flower beds and benefits from southerly aspects. There is a large garage to the front. Fairfield end also benefits from a delightful communal garden, which is just for residents and backs onto the meadow. There is an annual service charge of around £450 for management of the private road and the community garden.
