Property Description

A modern and well-presented open-plan family home, in the beautiful medieval market town of Saffron Walden.

Just a short walk to the attractive green space of The Common, Tesco and the town centre with its good selection of local independent shops and eateries, as well as familiar high street favourites, Waitrose and a historic twice-weekly market, all surrounded with a rich heritage of charming old buildings.

The house has been freshly decorated with a contemporary neutral palette.

The well-proportioned accommodation is arranged over three floors, creating a light and spacious feel while offering flexible and versatile living space.

The bright open-plan kitchen, dining and living area creates an ideal space for both everyday family life and entertaining. French doors open directly onto the enclosed rear garden, with its patio and raised planting border.

The well-appointed kitchen benefits from solid oak worktops and breakfast bar, integrated appliances and quality finishes throughout. Oak internal doors, stylish fittings, practical LVT flooring and thoughtful design details contribute to the home's high standard of presentation.

The house has a downstairs WC as well as a family bathroom, plus an additional en suite shower room.

The top floor with its 3 skylights reveals a spacious loft room with generous and useful eaves storage.

Saffron Walden is one of Essex's most desirable market towns, renowned for its historic character, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and twice-weekly market. Residents can also enjoy nearby green spaces, excellent leisure facilities and convenient access to Cambridge and surrounding transport links.
