

111 Casterton Road, Stamford, Lincolnshire, PE9 2UF

This beautifully presented three-bedroom detached family home occupies a popular location close to Malcolm Sargent Primary School, while also providing easy access to Stamford town centre and the A1. Offering well-planned accommodation and attractive gardens, the property is an excellent choice for families and those seeking a well-maintained home in a convenient setting.

A particular feature is the bright dual-aspect breakfast kitchen, which has been fitted with a stylish modern kitchen and provides an excellent space for everyday family life. This leads through to a good-sized sitting room and a delightful south-facing conservatory, creating a wonderful flow of living space.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, cloakroom, sitting room, breakfast kitchen and conservatory, with three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern shower room on the first floor.

Outside, the rear garden is beautifully maintained and features a south-facing patio and lawn, attractive flower borders and a substantial garden shed, providing excellent storage. To the front is a further immaculate lawn garden together with off-street parking.

Combining excellent presentation, attractive gardens and a convenient location close to schooling, the town centre and the A1, this superb detached home is sure to appeal to a wide range of purchasers.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the quality, accommodation and outside space on offer.
