A beautiful semi-detached character cottage, which has undergone an extensive renovation over the years, with attractive garden and lovely views over the valley. Located in this sought after and thriving village, the house offers wonderfully modern living in a charming period setting.

ACCOMMODATION

Sitting/dining room with feature fireplace
Modern fitted kitchen with glazed double doors to the garden

Two bedrooms, the smaller with a built-in cupboard
Contemporary bathroom

EXTERNALLY

A covered deck, accessed directly from the kitchen, provides an all-weather seating area from which you can enjoy those lovely views. The remainder of the garden is laid to gravel, with raised beds and various storage sheds, along with a small chicken coop.

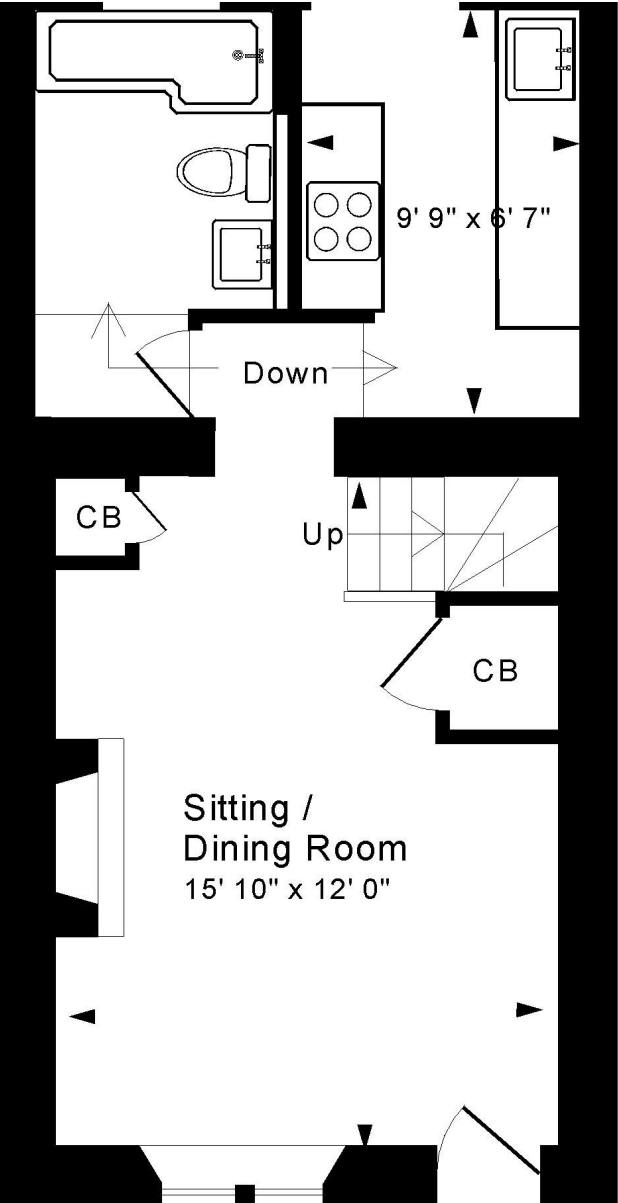

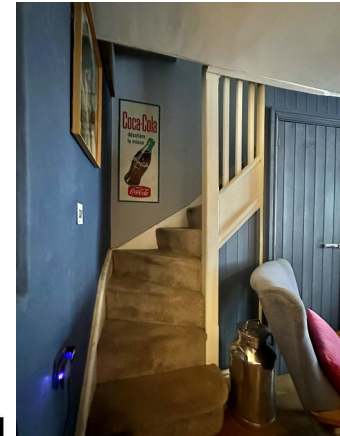

LOCATION

The property is positioned in the picturesque village of Limply Stoke with its popular pub, owned and run by the village, and historic hotel, just 4 miles south of Bath city centre. It has fantastic views across the Limply Stoke valley and is well placed for wonderful country walks along the river and the Kennet & Avon Canal. The neighbouring village of Freshford, which is less than a mile away, offers excellent local amenities including a community shop, Post Office and Café, along with Freshford Pre-School & Primary School, whilst the local train station provides easy access to Bath and Bristol.
