A substantial four-double bedroom detached family home situated in the highly desirable Birds & Trees area of Hatfield. A fantastic example of a classic 1960s property, it features spacious, well-balanced rooms filled with natural light, thanks to its large windows.

This spacious home provides an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking space, flexibility, and potential. With generously sized, light-filled rooms, it's perfectly suited for modernization and enhancement.

With planning permission for a loft conversion (planning ref: S6/2009/2227/FP), the home offers exceptional scope for refurbishment, reconfiguration, and value enhancement. The approved loft suite includes a master bedroom, private bathroom and dressing room with much of the groundwork already completed, including attic trusses, insulation, plumbing, and roof lights - saving both time and cost for the new owner.

Additionally, the potential to reconfigure the existing layout offers a unique opportunity to increase living space, create a bespoke home and add significant value in a prime location.

In summary, this property presents exceptional potential for extension, reconfiguration and value enhancement, making it an ideal choice for growing families, upsizers and investors alike.
