Council Tax Band: B

GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor features a generously sized lounge overlooking the front garden, filled with natural light and creating a warm and welcoming living space. A fully functioning log burner provides a charming focal point, complemented by large free-standing bookcase and space for freestanding furniture.

To the rear of the property is a spacious open-plan kitchen/diner, offering excellent worktop space and a useful corner pantry cupboard. Overlooking the rear garden, this area provides an ideal setting for dining and entertaining. The kitchen is fitted with an integrated fridge, freestanding washing machine, electric cooker, and a modern boiler.

FIRST FLOOR

The well-maintained family bathroom comprises a WC, wash basin, bath, and electric shower.

The main bedroom overlooks the rear of the property and comfortably accommodates a double bed along with large freestanding storage units.

The second bedroom is a particularly generous double room overlooking the front of the property. Currently used as an additional reception space, it offers flexibility to suit a variety of needs.

The third bedroom is currently arranged as a home office and would comfortably accommodate a single bed with additional storage if required.

Further storage is available via a loft space, accessed by a fitted ladder.

OUTSIDE

The property benefits from both front and rear gardens, providing excellent outdoor space. The rear garden includes greenhouse, large storage shed and a summer house, all fitted with electricity.

LOCATION

Situated in the heart of Shelf, the property is conveniently located close to local schools, shops, and transport links. On-street parking is available.
