For Sale Freehold £150,000

A well proportioned and freshly redecorated two bedroom traditional terraced home, offering useful cellar storage and additional attic space, all situated in a highly convenient location on the fringe of Normanton town centre.

Benefitting from gas fired central heating and double glazed windows, this comfortable and well presented home is entered via a welcoming entrance hall, which leads through into the main reception hall. The living room is positioned to the front of the property and features an attractive fireplace together with a bay window providing plenty of natural light. To the rear is a generously sized dining room with an archway leading through to the fitted kitchen. To the first floor are two double bedrooms together with a bathroom fitted with a modern white and chrome three piece suite. The property also benefits from useful cellar storage and additional attic space. Externally, the property has a buffer style garden to the front, while to the rear is a lawned garden with gated access leading out to the back lane.

The property is conveniently situated within easy reach of the wide range of shops, schools and recreational facilities available in Normanton town centre. Normanton also benefits from its own railway station, while the national motorway network is readily accessible, making the property particularly convenient for commuters.

This attractive home would make an ideal purchase for first time buyers, professional couples, small families or investors alike, and an early viewing is highly recommended.
