"The past 14 years have been a joy living in our home, the neighbors are amazing and being opposite the allotments means that we're not overlooked, it's always quiet and we have a lovely view from the main bedroom which has fabulous natural daylight. The kitchen is what initially drew us to the house as it's a really good size and brilliant to cook in, the sitting room has a gas fire for the winter evenings and we've enjoyed many Christmases there. Our garden studio has been a game changer from being able to work from home and given us more flexibility. We love the location as it's close to two stations which take us straight into Central London. The high street has loads of options to eat out and we're often seen at The Dolphin for their 2 for 1 pizza nights on Mondays!
