This charming, cottage style home enjoys an exceptional position at the heart of this enduringly popular village whilst being just steps away from the local hostelry, the high street with its range of shops, as well as a primary school and library. The property which is exceptionally well presented provides spacious accommodation that comprises a reception hall, ground floor toilet, spacious living room, kitchen/breakfast room with utility area, three spacious bedrooms with en suite facility to the master bedroom and a family bathroom along with a large rear garden and integral single garage.

SITUATION | This deceptively spacious and charming home is centrally situated within the conservation area at the heart of the village of Raglan within walking distance of local shops and amenities. Raglan is an enduringly popular village, sought after due to its community cohesiveness and favoured by young professionals, families, and retirees alike. The village is steeped in history being an ancient market town which has attracted bygone attention from royalty and nobility, having been the scene of battles although more latterly has become noted for being a tourist destination and an outlier of Monmouth. The area is a haven for outdoor sports enthusiasts with hiking, fishing, sailing, cycling, pony trekking and a 9 hole golf course all prevalent nearby.

Local facilities in the village include a highly regarded primary school, doctors' surgery and pharmacy, a 14th Century church, an historic medieval castle, the Beaufort Arms Hotel and Restaurant, the Cripple Creek gastro pub and for children, Raglan Farm Park. There are also several independent shops, a post office and Tesco mini market store, chemist, butchers, and a petrol station.

Raglan is surrounded by scenic countryside and walks yet is ideally placed to provide easy access onto the A40 and A449 which provide links to Abergavenny, Monmouth, and Newport and then further afield to the M50 and M4 for the Midlands, West Wales, Cardiff and central London. Raglan is located 8 miles from Monmouth via the A40 and in the opposite direction on the A40, 9 miles from Abergavenny. The regional centres of Newport (19 miles), Cardiff (32 miles) and Bristol (30 miles) and within a 25 minute, 40 minute and 45 minute drive respectively via the A 449 and M4.
