LOCATION

Leopold Walk is pleasantly situated within a quiet residential development in the well-served village of Cottenham, located approximately 6 miles north of Cambridge. The village offers an excellent range of day-to-day amenities including a variety of shops, a supermarket, public houses, cafés, a post office, pharmacy and a library, together with a well-regarded primary school and Cottenham Village College. The location provides a strong sense of community while also offering convenient access to Cambridge city centre, which offers a wide range of shopping, dining and cultural facilities, as well as renowned educational institutions. For commuters, the A14 is easily accessible, providing connections to the M11, A1 and wider road network, while Cambridge North railway station is within easy reach, offering regular services into London and beyond. In addition, the surrounding countryside provides attractive walking and cycling routes, making the area particularly appealing to those seeking a balance between village living and accessibility to the city.
