Robertson Smith & Kempson

Three Pigeons House, High Street,

£508 pw (£2,200 pcm)

This immaculate, newly built one bedroom apartment within the historic Three Pigeons development in Ealing Broadway combines period character with contemporary interiors. Features include a fully fitted open plan kitchen, stylish bathroom, wooden flooring, private balcony, lift access, secure entry system and dedicated bicycle storage.

The Three Pigeons name has been part of Ealing High Street since the 19th century. Today, this characterful building has been transformed into a collection of newly completed contemporary apartments, blending heritage charm with modern sophistication.

The property features an open plan kitchen with integrated appliances, including a fridge/ freezer, oven and hob, dishwasher and washer/dryer. Further benefits include a stylish contemporary bathroom, elegant wooden flooring throughout, private balcony, lift access, dedicated bicycle storage and a secure entry system, while residents will also benefit from the evolving Three Pigeons Resident Benefits Programme, designed to provide a curated selection of home, lifestyle and local partner offers as they become available.

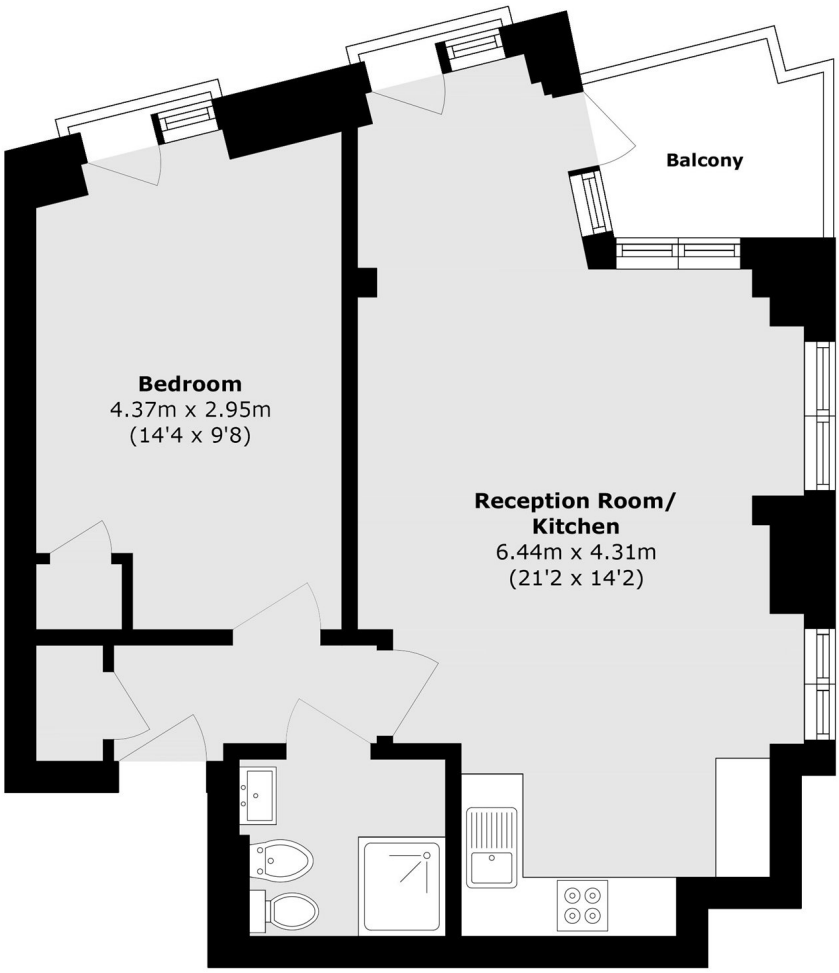

Three Pigeons House in High Street is moments from Ealing Broadway's shops, restaurants, cafés and parks, with superb Elizabeth, Central, District and National Rail connections.
