An exceptional five-bedroom detached barn conversion, thoughtfully arranged over split levels and showcasing an abundance of character and architectural charm throughout. Rich in period features, including exposed beams and stonework, the property is further enhanced by an impressive vaulted ceiling within the principal reception room, creating a wonderful sense of space and light. The accommodation includes a superb master suite with en-suite facilities, complemented by three further generously proportioned double bedrooms and a study / fifth bedroom. A beautifully appointed breakfast kitchen and an elegant dining room, with French doors opening onto the terrace, provide superb spaces for both relaxed family living and refined entertaining. An integral garage with mezzanine storage presents an rare opportunity for conversion into additional living accommodation, subject to the necessary consents. The property is set within exquisitely landscaped, south-facing gardens extending to three sides, enjoying a high degree of privacy alongside far-reaching rural views, yet is sheltered from both north and prevailing westerlies. The driveway provides off-road parking with additional spaces available. Occupying a prestigious position along Dog Lane, one of Greetland's most desirable addresses, the property enjoys a tranquil, semi-rural setting surrounded by picturesque countryside. Greetland itself is a highly regarded Calderdale village, known for its strong sense of community and excellent local schooling. A wider range of amenities can be found in nearby Elland and Halifax, while superb transport links, including swift access to the M62, provides excellent connectivity to Leeds, Manchester, and beyond. Rail services from nearby stations further enhance accessibility for commuters. The surrounding landscape offers an array of scenic walks and outdoor pursuits, making this a perfect setting for those seeking an idyllic lifestyle without compromising on convenience
