GUIDE PRICE £375,000-£425,000

Three bedrooms, a huge garden and a summerhouse that seriously raises the bar.

Set on the desirable Lower Crescent in Linford, this semi-detached family home has plenty going for it. There's a good-size lounge, a lovely open-plan kitchen/diner flowing straight into a versatile conservatory, plus three bedrooms and a well-appointed shower room upstairs.

But wait until you see the garden.

Large, unoverlooked and made for long summer days, it also comes with an impressive three-room summerhouse. There's a games room for the competitive ones, a dedicated office for the productive ones and a craft room for the creative ones. No more arguing over the spare bedroom.

Driveway parking takes care of the cars, there's also a garage in a nearby block, and East Tilbury station is within close proximity for those days when working from the garden office isn't an option.

A proper family home with space to live, work, play and escape from one another when required.
