£400,000

A semi detached character house within the town centre of Seaford. An attractive covered porch leads into a second enclosed porch with tiled floor synonymous for the period. To the front, a bay fronted living room has fire place, decorative architrave and picture rails. Directly behind you find the dining room with access into the kitchen. From the kitchen a door takes you into the side passage/porch which leads to a the downstairs WC, a large store cupboard and utilities room. Completing the ground floor is the family room located to the rear, overlooking and with access onto the westerly rear garden. Upstairs you have the 3 bedrooms with the principal bedroom measuring an impressive 17'. There is also a bathroom with separate toilet and an airing cupboard.

Although dated the property has been well maintained and gives the opportunity to acquire a town centre character house with garage, as well as a westerly rear garden. Character features to the property include panelled doors, architrave, picture rails and bannisters.

Enclosed by brick and flint walls, the westerly rear garden is predominately laid to lawn with flower to the boundaries and a patio. The garage is also set within the garden with side access. The flint boundary wall continues down the side of the property to the front garden, which is paved with central flower bed.

Ashurst Road is ideally situated within close proximity to the town centre and its wide range of shops, A259 coastal road (with bus service to Brighton & Eastbourne every 15mins) and railway station (with links to London (Victoria) and Brighton). This family sized house is close to both a primary and secondary schools located on nearby Steyne Road/Sutton Avenue. A large park with children's play area is also located within a few hundred yards. The uncommercialised seafront promenade and beach are located less than a ¼ of a mile of the property.
