Nestled just a short stroll from the sea, this charming semi-detached bungalow offers a quiet refuge within one of the region's most desirable villages — a place where coastal air mingles with the soft green of woodland and where village life unfolds easily around you. Mornings might begin with a wander to the shore, coastal breezes on your face as you stroll toward the shingle and limestone cove of Bracelet Bay with its rock pools and the silhouette of the lighthouse beyond. Local cafés, independent shops and inviting restaurants line the lanes of the nearby village, while leafy paths and coastal walks offer gentle escapes into countryside and sea air.

Inside, the home unfolds with simple elegance. A welcoming hallway leads to two well-proportioned bedrooms and a neatly appointed shower room. The heart of the house is its open plan kitchen and living area, where light and warmth set the tone for calm evenings or relaxed weekends. A conservatory extends from this space, offering a bright, airy transition between inside life and the outdoors.

Outside, the property offers practical ease. To the front, parking space for one vehicle brings comfort and convenience. To the rear, a low-maintenance garden provides a private outdoor retreat — a small, easy-care haven for fresh air, morning coffee or summer evenings under the sky.

Perhaps most compelling of all is the freedom this cottage brings: it is offered with no onward chain, presenting a rare opportunity to make this home your own without delay. Quiet, understated and full of potential, this home offers not just walls and rooms, but a lifestyle — the everyday calm and timeless allure of sea, village and simplicity.
