Four-Bedroom Detached House with Two Garages in the Sought-After Hob Hill Area

This spacious four-bedroom detached home occupies a desirable position within the popular Hob Hill area and offers generous accommodation throughout. Although in need of modernisation, the property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers to update, personalise, and add significant value.

Externally, the property benefits from a private driveway and gardens, providing ample outdoor space and off-road parking. A standout feature is the substantial double garage, complete with inspection pit, making it ideal for storage or workshop use.

Offered with vacant possession and no onward chain, the property is available now for a straightforward purchase.

Within close proximity to leisure facilities, schools, and golf course, and only a short drive in to Saltburn's ever popular Town Centre, this property must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
