About The Property

Looking for a home with land close to the coast, where countryside views stretch towards Cardigan Bay and there's room for family life, hobbies or a smallholding? This "Upside-Down house" is a semi-detached three/four-bedroom home sits within approximately 8.72 acres, complete with an agricultural barn, established gardens and sea views from the field, all just a short distance from Tresaith Beach.

Positioned in a sought-after part of West Wales, this home combines generous living space with acreage that's becoming increasingly difficult to find so close to the Cardigan Bay coastline. The setting near Tresaith and neighbouring coastal villages only a short drive away, making it suited as a home.

The property is approached via a driveway leading to parking and the agricultural barn, with the surrounding land located above and to the left of the house to create a wonderful sense of space. The gardens have been thoughtfully arranged with lawns, mature planting, patio seating areas and gently rising ground behind the house that takes full advantage of the far-reaching countryside outlook.

Inside, the accommodation is bright, practical and designed for modern family living. The kitchen opens into a spacious dining area, creating a sociable heart to the home with plenty of room for everyday meals or entertaining. A breakfast bar provides additional workspace, while an extensive range of fitted units offers excellent storage.

The adjoining sitting room is a welcoming space with exposed ceiling timbers, an attractive fireplace and windows overlooking the gardens. Double doors lead directly into the conservatory, creating another reception area that enjoys views across the patio and lawns throughout the seasons. With doors opening onto the garden, it naturally extends the living space during the warmer months.

Offers in the region of £595,000

Also on the upper floor is a useful second reception room, ideal as a snug, home office or playroom or a fourth bedroom, together with a modern shower room.

The staircase goes down to the ground floor where three well-proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation for family and guests. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by the family bathroom, fitted with a corner bath, creating flexibility for growing families.

Externally:

Outside is where this property really begins to stand apart. The immediate gardens have been designed for outdoor enjoyment, with generous patio areas for dining, level lawns and mature hedging providing shelter and privacy. Beyond the formal garden the land extends to approximately 8.72 acres, offering grazing, recreational space or opportunities for those looking to keep animals, subject to any necessary consents.

The substantial agricultural barn provides excellent storage for machinery, equipment, vehicles or workshop space and complements the lifestyle potential that the acreage provides.

From the higher sections of the land there are lovely open views across the surrounding countryside with sea views towards Cardigan Bay, creating a wonderful backdrop that changes with the seasons.

Situated close to the popular seaside village of Tresaith, the property enjoys easy access to one of West Wales' most picturesque beaches, renowned for its waterfall, sandy bay and access to the Ceredigion Coast Path. Nearby villages provide everyday amenities, while the market town of Cardigan offers a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, cafés, schools and leisure facilities.

This is a property that offers considerably more than a family home. The combination of generous accommodation, extensive land, useful agricultural buildings and proximity to the coast creates a rare opportunity to enjoy the best of country living within easy reach of the Cardigan Bay coastline.

OTHER COSTS TO BE AWARE OF WHEN PURCHASING A PROPERTY:

LAND TRANSACTION TAX (LTT): You may need to pay this if you buy property or land in Wales, this is on top of the purchase price. This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator.

BUYING AN ADDITIONAL PROPERTY: If you own more than one residential property, you could be liable to pay a higher rate of Land Transaction Tax (sometimes called Second-Home Land Transaction Tax). This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator - we will also ensure you are aware of this when you make your offer on a property. Also, properties in our areas are subject to higher rates of Council Tax for additional/second homes. Please ensure you check with the local authority provider as to what this will be prior to making an offer.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS - PROOF OF ID AND PROOF OF FUNDS: As part of our legal obligations to HMRC for Money Laundering Regulations, the successful purchaser(s) will be required to complete ID checks to prove their identity. Documents required for this will be a valid photo ID (e.g. Passport or Photo Driving Licence) and proof of address (e.g. a recent Utility Bill/Bank Statement from the last 3 months). Proof of funds will also be required, including any bank or savings statements from the last 3 months & a mortgage agreement in principle document, if a mortgage is required. Please ensure you have these in place at the point you make an offer on a property so as to save any delays.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX: If you are selling an additional property, or a property with land, you may be liable to pay Capital Gains on the gains made on the property. Please discuss this with an accountant to find out if any tax will be liable when you sell your home. More information can be found on the Gov.UK website here - <https://www.gov.uk/capital-gains-tax>

SOLICITORS/SURVEYORS/FINANCIAL ADVISORS/MORTGAGE APPLICATIONS/REMOVAL FIRMS ETC - these also need to be taken into consideration when purchasing a property. Please ensure you have had quotes ASAP to allow you to budget. Please let us know if you require any help with any of these.
