Location

Carnhell Green is a small hamlet between the villages of Gwinear and Barrigger. It has a village shop/Post Office whilst a wide arrange of amenities including doctors surgery and schooling are to hand in nearby Connor Downs and Praze. The larger towns of Hayle and Camborne cater for virtually every daily need and each has a stop on the Paddington/Penzance railway line. The A30 at Treswithian Downs ensures east access throughout the County and for those wanting the pleasure of the north coast, the footpaths and beaches at Gwithian and Godrevy are within a 15 minute drive.
