THE LOCATION

Port Navas is a small, exclusive creekside community, situated between the well served villages of Mawnan Smith and Constantine. A village quay hosts the annual village regatta and nearby is the lauded Port Navas Yacht Club and Restaurant. The village hall holds many events, creating a real village community. From the quay, access is provided onto the tree-lined sheltered waters of Anna Maria and Port Navas Creek, and onto the Helford River, with Helford Sailing Club on the opposite bank. Gweek Boatyard provides laying-up and repair facilities, moorings are available on application, and just beyond Budock Vean and Pedn Billy is Helford Passage, the Ferryboat Inn and the mouth of the river which opens onto Falmouth Bay.

THE ACCOMMODATION COMPRISES
