INTRODUCTION

Ready to move straight into with no forward chain is this particularly spacious detached bungalow which occupies a good sized plot in a highly desirable location between Kemp Road and West Leys Road in Swanland. The property has been subject to a programme of modernisation and boasts a variety of new fittings including a superb open plan living kitchen. Features also include a large living room, en-suite bedroom, three further double bedrooms, shower room plus separate W.C.. The accommodation is depicted on the attached floorplan and has the benefit of gas fired central heating to radiators and uPVC double glazing. The property is well set back from the road with sizable lawn to the front and a block set forecourt provides extensive parking facilities. The rear garden enjoys a southerly aspect and much privacy.

LOCATION

This sought after residential location runs between Kemp Road and West Leys Road and comprises a number of fine properties. Swanland has a beautiful centre where a number of shops can be found including a convenience store/post office, chemist and coffee shop. There are a number of amenities and recreational facilities such as a tennis and bowls club and children's playing field. The village also has a well reputed junior school with secondary schooling at the nearby South Hunsley school. A number of public schools are also available locally. Convenient access is gained to the A63 which leads to Hull city centre to the east and the national motorway network to the west. A railway station is situated in the neighbouring village of North Ferriby with a further mainline station approximately 10 minutes driving distance away in Brough providing intercity connections.
