Interior

An apartment that immediately draws your eye towards the water. At its heart is a beautifully bright open-plan kitchen and living room, thoughtfully arranged for relaxed everyday living. White cabinetry is paired with a wood-effect worktop, with an integrated oven and hob enhancing the contemporary finish. Extending naturally into a breakfast bar, the worktop creates an inviting place for morning coffee, informal dining or sociable evenings over food and conversation. The living area is filled with natural light, with a set of double doors opening towards the sea and another set of double doors opening onto a balcony area with glass balustrades. The room takes on an airy, coastal quality, allowing the outside atmosphere to become part of the living space. The double bedroom continues the connection with the coast, enjoying its own sea views alongside practical sliding mirrored wardrobes that provide excellent fitted storage without compromising valuable floor space. A fitted desk area makes working from home easy to accommodate. A useful storage cupboard positioned within the hallway provides further space for keeping everyday belongings neatly out of sight.

Exterior

Positioned on the second floor, the apartment features a reassuring collection of practical conveniences. Access to the building is controlled by a secure entry system, while a lift provides straightforward access to each floor. The apartment also benefits from an allocated sheltered parking space situated within a secure, residents-only gated car park – an especially useful advantage in such a desirable and vibrant coastal location.

Location

Occupying an enviable position, this apartment places some of Leigh-on-Sea's most celebrated attractions within easy reach. Historic Old Leigh is within great walking distance, bringing the Thames Estuary, waterfront walks, fishing heritage and the characterful atmosphere of Leigh's old town almost to the doorstep. Days here can move effortlessly from coffee and shopping on Leigh Broadway, known for its independent boutiques, specialist food shops and local retailers, to lunch or drinks beside the water. For commuters, Leigh-on-Sea railway station can be reached within an approximate walk of 15 minutes, and is served by c2c, providing connections towards London Fenchurch Street as well as Southend and other destinations across south Essex. Green space is equally accessible. Belton Hills Nature Reserve, Leigh Library Gardens and the larger Chalkwell Park provide attractive alternatives when a change from the shoreline is desired. Above all, this is a location where the seafront is not simply somewhere to visit – it forms part of everyday life, with the beach, estuary views, Old Leigh and the energy of Leigh Broadway all combining to create one of the area's most compelling coastal lifestyles.
